

ROSES IN TEACHING HERB GARDEN 2008

Common Name	Botanical Name	Class	Zone	Ht.	Bloom	Comments
Baby Blanket	Rosa Sommermorgen	shrub rose	5/6	2 1/2 ft	light pink with yellow stamens, continuous blooms	Compact habit, used as groundcover; hardy and disease resistant.
Bella Donna	Rosa 'Bella Donna'	damask	3	6ft	pink, double, fragrant; blooms once	Bred before 1848.
Blanc Double de Coubert	Rosa rugosa 'Blanc Double de Coubert'	hybrid rugosa	4	5ft	white, semi-double, fragrant; repeats bloom	Bred in France in 1892. Hybrid rugosa and Sombreuil. Very disease resistant
Eglanteria	Rosa Eglanteria syn. Rosa Rubignosa	species	5	8-10 ft..	small, single pink flowers; fragrant; blooms once	Decorative hips. Leaves have apple scent. Shade tolerant. Bred before 1551 . Very disease resistant.
Fantin Latour	Rosa 'Fantin-Latour'	centifolia (shrub rose)	5	3 - 6 ft	light pink, darker center; medium to large double; fragrant; blooms once	Bred 1940.. Susceptible to mildew. Blooms on old wood. Prune after flowering is finished.
Fru Dagmar Hastrup	Rosa rugosa 'Fru Dagmar Hastrup' syn. 'Frau Dagmar Hartopp'	hybrid rugosa	4	3 - 4 ft	Pink, single, strong fragrance. Occasional repeat bloomer.	Bred in Denmark around 1914. Large scarlet hips. Disease resistant. Located in Edible Plant bed.
Hansa	Rosa rugosa 'Hansa'	hybrid rugosa	4	5 - 7ft	red-purple, double flowers; very fragrant, repeat bloomer	Bred in Netherlands in 1905. Disease resistant; rose hips form in fall.

Kazanlik	Rosa damascena syn. 'Trigintipetala'	Origin unknown	4	5 -7 ft	soft pink, semi-double, very fragrant, rose hips; blooms once	Origin: Bulgaria, 1689. Used for attar of roses. Blooms on old wood. Prune after flowering is finished.
Memorial Rose	Rosa wichurana "Snow Carpet"	wild rose	5 to 6	to 9'	Profuse, fragrant, small, single white flowers. Blooms once, late in season. Dark, glossy foliage	Origin in Far East. Good ground cover. Disease resistant. Sun. Located in ground cover bed.
New Dawn	Rosa 'New Dawn'	climbing rose	5	7 - 10ft	light pink, semi-double, fragrant; repeat bloomer	Bred in US in 1930. Disease resistant; shade tolerant; blooms on old wood. Prune after bloom.
Rosa Mundi Rose	Rosa Gallica 'Rosa Mundi'; syn. 'Versicolor'	gallica	4	3 ft	semi-double, light crimson striped with light pink and white; blooms early summer	Origin in 1500's. Sport of Apothecary's Rose; very fragrant; hardy; forms rose hips; suckers readily.
Roseaie de l'Hay	Rosa rugosa 'Roseaie de l'Hay'	hybrid rugosa	4	6 ft.	large, red, double; fragrant; occasional repeat bloomer	Bred in France in 1901. Sets few hips. Disease resistant.
Redleaf Rose	Rosa Glauca syn. Rosa Rubrifolia	species	4	6 ft x 6ft	small, single pink flowers; slight fragrant; blooms once	Decorative hips, burgundy foliage, shade tolerant, disease resistant. Located in Perennial bed.
Sombreuil	Rosa 'Sombreuil'	climbing tea	5	8 plus ft.	large white, full double, fragrant; occasional repeat bloomer.	Shade tolerant; bred before 1850. Located on east and west arbors

Therese Bugnet	Rosa rugosa 'Therese Bugnet'	hybrid rugosa	4	6ft x 6ft	medium pink, light fragrance; occasionally repeats bloom	Bred in Canada by George Bugnet in 1950. Shade tolerant. Disease resistant
William Baffin	Rosa 'William Baffin'	climbing rose	3	7- 10 ft.	deep pink, semi-double, occasional repeat bloomer	Hybrid kordesii; Canadian developed Explorer Series; disease resistant. Located on east and west arbors.

Researched by Elizabeth C. Sluder for the New England Unit of The Herb Society of America. 6/08